LAKEPORT MAN ARRESTED FOR POSSESSION OF SUSPECTED METHAMPHETAMINE AFTER A STRUGGLE WITH OFFICERS.

Jose Guadalupe Aguilar 19, was arrested on January 19, 2013 at about 8:00 pm for possession of suspected methamphetamine, resisting arrest, committing a felony while on bail, threatening a peace officer and probation violation after being stopped on his bicycle for a vehicle code violation. During the contact with Aguilar, Officer Eastham noted he was acting suspicious and attempting to back away. As Officer Eastham and Sgt. Stoebe tried to detain Aguilar for a probation search, he began to actively resist the officers by pulling his arms away and kicking toward them in an attempt to flee. After several attempts to get Aguilar to comply with no result, a Taser was deployed and Aguilar was eventually taken into custody.

Located on his person during a jail custody search, was an undetermined amount of suspected methamphetamine. Aguilar was additionally charged with bringing narcotics into a correctional facility.

Aguilar was currently out on bail from a previous incident on January 7, 2013 where he was arrested in the 1700 block of N.High St. for an outstanding arrest warrant. During that incident, Aguilar actively resisted arrest by trying to punch Officer Basor in an attempt to flee. Aguilar was eventually taken into custody and transported to the Hill Road Jail. Located on Aguilar's person during the jail search, was an undetermined amount of suspected methamphetamine, along with $600 in various denominations of US currency. Aguilar was additionally charged with possession of a controlled substance for sale, resisting arrest and violation of probation.

Jose Aguilar was booked at the Hill Road Correctional Facility with a no bail hold.
