City of Lakeport - ZC 19-03 & CE 19-18

Associate Planner Chance briefed the Planning Commission and presented a slide presentation regarding amending Lakeport Zoning Ordinance Chapter 17.12 and 17.52 concerning the regulation of portable sandwich board sings in the Central Business zoning district.

Commissioner Mitchell asked how many complaints the City had received regarding these signs. Director Ingram advised they have received several complaints recently from other businesses, citizens advising of ADA access being blocked and from Public Works employees who have picked up signs in the right of way.
Commissioner Green asked what discussion, if any, was there for more traditional forms of signage, such as window or door signage. Associate Planner stated effective signage would be very helpful, however we can’t force businesses to choose one type of sign over another. Director Ingram stated the cost of the sign was also a factor for businesses.

Commissioner Wicks asked how this would affect other zoning locations in the city, as other businesses in the city would take advantage of these signs as well. Director Ingram stated these types of signs are pedestrian motivated signs and staff would have to look into other zoning areas and how staff will enforce signs in those areas.

Commissioner Wicks recommended putting in a condition that mandates that appropriate signage for any businesses was in compliance prior to allowing the business to put out an approved sign board. Wicks stated there were several businesses who still had banners on their buildings that are damaged or faded.

Chair Froio suggested when looking at signs, staff should look at the number of signs, the size, the color and material it is made out of also.

Public hearing opened at 6:07 p.m. Local business owner John Richardson spoke in favor of sandwich board signs directing customers and would like to see something consistent such as directional signs.

LEDAC member and local business owner, Pamela Harpster spoke in favor of sandwich board signs. Ms. Harpster also suggested staff look at other businesses which have businesses older signs and either update or remove if the business is closed.

Local business employee, Yvette Sawle spoke in favor of directional signs to assist businesses which aren’t on Main Street.

Public hearing closed at 6:17 p.m.

Commissioner Mitchell stated the sandwich board signs, to him, shows signs of busy businesses that are open for business. Mitchell stated if there was a look and size that was agreed upon it would make it more consistent and bring in more business.

Commissioner Warrenburg stated a more consistent look and size would be beneficial to our local businesses.

Commissioner Green stated consistency in current signage on businesses should be considered also. Green stated co-located or shared sign space might be more appealing and apply the standards city wide not just in the Central Business zoning area.

Commissioner Wicks stated a better sign ordinance is needed however he would suggest doing so in a way where the ordinance could be modified as the needs change.

Chair Froio advised color coded directional signs might be an option. Director Ingram stated there is also the issue of those businesses that are not located on Main Street and one of the things staff proposed was how to handle those businesses, as currently off-site signage is prohibited.
Associate Planner Chance stated one of the things to keep in mind was the sandwich board signs will be part of a larger sign ordinance. Chance advised staff was looking at a comprehensive sign ordinance program that the sandwich board ordinance can be rolled into. Chance advised on page 2 of the staff report there was an outline that would be a good starting point in amending the ordinance.

Commissioner Green asked if there was consensus to make the ordinance pertain to all zoning districts could the suggested motion be changed. Associate Planner Chance advised that it could by taking out the subsection that pertains only to the Central Business District.

Public hearing opened at 6:59 p.m. Business owner John Richardson spoke advising he would follow any guidelines specified. Chair Froio asked if Mr. Richardson would have a problem putting a sign perpendicular on the building and was advised no.

Associate Planner Chance advised the type of sign they discussed was a projection sign which has to be hung a minimum of 8 feet high for clearance and Mr. Richardson’s building has an awning that won’t allow for the sign to be placed high enough.

Business owner Pamela Harpster spoke again stated she would like to have the opportunity to use a chalk board as it fits her business better.

Yvette Sawle, spoke in favor of keeping the sandwich board signs and agreed to the uniformity of the frame but the sign portion being more unique to the business using them.

Public hearing closed at 7:10 p.m.

Commissioner Warrenburg suggested the Commission first focus on the downtown area first, then have staff bring several options back to the Commission on the material and design of the signs. Chair Froio stated having different samples of type of sign holder that are similar be presented for approval.

Commissioner Green suggested having maximum sign area, develop standards for framing materials and setting a have specific caps.

Director Ingram stated staff has several samples of other ordinance with specific criteria to use as a guideline to create our ordinance.

Commissioner Green moved to initiate through a minute order of the Planning Commission the preparation of amendments of the Zoning Ordinance for portable signs to apply equally through out the City of Lakeport. Seconded by Commissioner Mitchell and carried by voice vote (5-0).

COMMENTS FROM STAFF AND COMMISSIONERS:

Associate Planner Chance advised the Commission that the Seawall project has started. Chair Froio asked if there was an update on Hartley Pedestrian project. Director Ingram stated the project is on track and sent to the state.

Commissioner Green welcomed Commissioner Warrenburg and congratulated Chair Froio on his appointment to Chair.
Commissioner Froio welcomed Commissioner Warrenburg.
